Giving Guide

Deerfield Park Foundation

Our Deerfield Park District / Park Foundation Giving Program provides unique and varied community recognition opportunities. Our program provides name recognition and a means of publicly acknowledging someone. For more information, please email Deanna@deerfieldparks.org or call 847-572-2611.

TREE

Cost: $425

Includes an engraved nameplate "In Honor of..." or "In Memory of..." (displayed on the wall in the main entrance of Jewett Park Community Center). Each donor works with our on staff horticulturist for available tree and park placement. All trees are carefully chosen, healthy specimens, grown in selected nurseries in the area. Planting occurs in the Spring and Fall and is dependant on the type of tree chosen.

TREE OPTIONS

- Evergreen, Pine, Spruce, Fir (Dark green, long needled pyramidal pine; 50' at maturity.)
- Red Bud (Flowering tree with small, budlike, pink flowers.)
- Pear (Abundance of showy flowers; blooms in early Spring.)
- Maple (symmetrical tree with lustrous dark foliage; 45'-70' at maturity.)
- Oak (spring planting only. Round, densely branched with deep green foliage; 50' at maturity.)
- Linden (Oval form with straight trunk, deep green foliage with fragrant flowers in spring; 60-70' at maturity.)
- Kentucky Coffee (Many distinctive, unique features, including unusual bark and binately compound leaves. Leaf color is dark bluish-green in the summer and yellow in the fall; 65' tall x 50' wide at maturity.)
- Ohio Buckeye (Palmate leaves are dark green that turn yellowish-orange in the fall. Flowers are white clusters in the spring. Has a rounded shape that is 40' tall x 40' wide at maturity.)
